A group of people from Westfield and the surrounding area have come together to take part in a performance based on their memories and stories of the 1930s, 40s and 50s. Through a series of weekly creative sessions held at Geary Place participants' memories have been transformed into stories that are touching, highly visual and often extremely funny. The performance, given by members of the group and of Shaping Voices, will include elements of music, singing, dancing and poetry.

This event is the fourth in a series of sessions funded by the National Heritage Lottery, Rother District Council (Indian Summer Project) and the NHS, for people over the age of 60 living in Rother.

I ran away from Guide camp - saw bus with Westfield on it and went home.

*I was the first baby ever at
the Rye Hospital*

*We saw Westfield
from the window.
Is that a foreign land? I asked.*

I lived in a council house in Churchfield

*He would throw us a
sweet from the upstairs
window*

Woodsmoke would linger on your washing
